

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## PREFACE.

THE present Part contains the texts of one hundred and twelve tablets on which the names of the scribes have been broken away. Of these texts thirteen have been published by WINCKLER, one by JOHNS, and one in IV R. Even if the plan of publication had not made it necessary to republish these texts, I think that the many changes in readings and the additions would be sufficient justification for doing so.

Since the appearance of Part I in 1892, JOHNSTON has made several valuable contributions to the study of Letter Literature in his Epistolary Literature of the Assyrians and Babylonians, in A.J.S.L. and in P.A.O.S.; WINCKLER has published some texts in Texte verschiedenen Inhalts, most of which have been republished in various Parts of the present work with corrections and additions, and he has translated some texts in Altorientalische Forschungen; BERRY has treated the Rm. 2 Collection in A.J.S.L.; DELATTRE has discussed several texts in P.S.B.A.; MARTIN has published a popular lecture under the title Lettres assyriennes et babyloniennes; MEISSNER has given much space to forms of words found in Letters in his Supplement zu den Assyrischen Wörterbüchern; MUSS-ARNOLT has made good use of these texts in his Assyrian Dictionary; and JOHNS has treated the names of officials at considerable Deeds and Documents, II. Others have saved themselves of the material published in the this work.

I am much honoured by the attention of this class of literature, and I wish to state a remark by MR. JOHNS in Volume II, the texts are published they become : anyone may use them for any purpose h

This work by my fellow students will with my original plan as described in Part IV, and I see no reason to de as outlined ten years ago. Hence publish the texts until the Corpus Epist and I hope that the Parts will appear the future than in the past.

Part VII is in press and will be re It will contain (1) the remaining Letters a part of whose correspondence has been volumes ; and (2) the complete correscribes. With the appearance of this of Letter tablets published will be about

Part VIII will be an Index Vo Cuneiform characters, Lists of all the Pr Divinities, Countries, Peoples, Cities, I-VII, with references to their British numbers and to the numbers which they

Part IX will appear within a year.

I wish especially to acknowledge DR. E. WALLIS BUDGE, the Keeper of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities for his courtesy, and for the great assistance afforded me in the preparation of this Part

I am indebted for many valuable s readings of difficult passages to MR. LEONARD W. KING and MR. R. CAMPBELL THOMPSON, Assistants in the Department.

TO MR. R. CAMPBELL THOMPSON, who has made a valuable contribution to the study of a class of literature very closely allied to the Letters, I have the honour to dedicate this volume.
